Childhood is a time when there are few responsibilities to make life difficult. If a child (1)_____ good parents and they are fed, looked after and loved, whatever they may do, it is improbable that they will ever again in life (2)_____ given so much without having to do anything in return. In addition, life is always presenting new things to the child. A child finds pleasure in playing in the rain or in the snow. Their first visit to the seaside is a marvelous adventure. However, a child has their pains; they are not free to do as they wish; they are continually being told not to do things or are being (3)_____. Their life is therefore not perfectly happy. When the young individual starts to earn their own living, they become free from the discipline of school and parents, but at the same time they are forced to accept responsibilities. They can no longer expect others to pay for food, clothes and room, but they have to work if they want to live (4)_____. If they spend most of their time playing about in the way that they used to as a child, they will go hungry. The National Family Health Survey (NFHS) mentioned in its report how effectively India has used its newly created wealth to alter a dismal record of nutritional deprivation, ill-health and lost potential (1)_____ its citizens, particularly women and children. Given the steady growth in real per capita GDP since the 1980s, and the progress made since Independence in overcoming severe undernourishment, enlightened policy approaches could have brought about a giant leap from 1992-93, when the first NFHS was conducted, (2)_____ that no child or woman was left behind in the quest for health for all. We often encounter people who appear delightful on the surface but are secretly struggling with inner sadness because they don't have money. For many, (1) _____ is often viewed as the key to happiness or sorrow. However, this is a misconception. While (2) _____ can provide material comforts such as food, luxurious homes, a healthy lifestyle and various conveniences, it cannot purchase true happiness.

If wealth were the source of happiness, the rich would undoubtedly be the happiest individuals on earth. However, what we observe is quite the opposite—many wealthy people are plagued by (3) _____, anxiety, fear, stress and a variety of other problems.

In conclusion, (4) _____ is unrelated to happiness and true joy often comes from non-material aspects of life, such as relationships and personal fulfillment. Therefore, it is essential to recognise that (5) _____ can be found within oneself rather than in external possessions.
